

CASE STUDY

Fairfield Park Lower School, Stotfold

Sector:	Education
Client:	Bedfordshire County Council
Budget:	£2,450,000
Duration:	40 weeks
Completion:	August 2007
Architect:	Mouchel Parkman

Project specifications:

This is the construction of a new 150 place lower school for Bedfordshire County Council of traditional construction around a structural steel frame. It is of Victorian design which has elaborate architectural features and the inside environment complements this richness in terms of its vibrant child friendly classrooms. Around the building, we laid external games and play areas with both hard and soft surfacing and separate foul and surface water drainage system .

The works involved the creation of new access and parking arrangements for the school.
