Conclusions:

During this project M J Hillson Limited had to experience out-of-sequence working whilst waiting for areas to be completed. This meant close communication was required with trades and Laing O'Rourke's site team to give continued progress on-site. The project was handed over on time and to programme. It was difficult at times to work along side other trades however, good relationships maintained throughout. M J Hillson Limited continue an excellent relationship and partnership with Laing O'Rourke.

Hardworking team that never lost site of the progress demands on a sometimes difficult contract. Always co-operative and excellent with their weekly paperwork returns which LOR are very strict with. Look forward to working with you all again. Ian Cleveland, Laing O'Rourke - Team Leader
